Experience Kalgoorlie

Curtin Kalgoorlie has long been a global leader in mining education, putting engineering students in the heart of Western Australia's most renowned mining region.

If you study a mining related degree, you will complete all or part of your studies at the Kalgoorlie campus. You will gain valuable, practical skills through experiential learning, including on-site mine visits and using some of the latest mining technologies and equipment.

You will build industry networks and learn from experts living and working in Western Australia's Goldfields, while accessing our high-tech facilities.

Curtin's strong industry partnerships mean you'll get plenty of opportunities to learn in real work settings too, through vacation work and internships.

"Curtin's connections with the industry are strong. The University promotes interaction between students and companies, and offers different spaces for networking. This is one of the most important things about Curtin because it allows us to look for opportunities where we can practise theoretical knowledge in the field. For me, I was able to secure vacation work with Rio Tinto during the first semester of my master degree."

From Western Australia to the Moon and beyond

Curtin's planetary scientists are set to contribute to remote operations on the Moon and Mars as part of the new Australian space consortium, AROSE (Australian Remote Operations for Space and Earth).

AROSE brings together the best of Australian industry with the most advanced technology and leading WA scientists. It will take remote operations into space, including Curtin's own miniature satellites, and deliver solutions that benefit the Australia–NASA Moon-to-Mars program. It will also improve the safety and efficiency of sectors core to the Australian economy, including mining and energy.

Using DNA to understand the environment

eDNA Frontiers is a Curtin initiative providing a new way to monitor the environment – by testing the environmental DNA (eDNA) extracted from biological substrates. Testing for the presence of eDNA provides a more accurate method for assessing entire biological communities.

eDNA Frontiers uses its expertise across Australia and the globe for a variety of applications, including oil and gas exploration, mine site restoration, biodiversity management and port monitoring.

Innovating energy storage

Curtin researchers have developed a battery that stores energy as heat using high temperature chemical reactions at a fraction of the cost of other storage technologies.

The team has partnered with international renewable energy companies to develop and scale the technology, which has the potential to be an important player in the transition away from fossil fuels.

Improving workplace wellbeing

Thrive at Work is a world-first wellbeing initiative centred on designing work that helps employees, organisations and industry to thrive.

Led by the Future of Work Institute at Curtin, Thrive at Work has partnered with leading mental health bodies and businesses to improve work design, addressing challenges caused by digital disruption and ensuring employees have the right skills and support to thrive at work.

Curtin English courses can be packaged together with your chosen undergraduate, postgraduate or diploma program to streamline your enrolment and visa application process.

Curtin English programs

Curtin English offers three overarching programs: General English, Gateway English and English Language Bridging. The English course you need to take is determined by your current English language test result and the level you need for entry to your chosen Curtin course.

Some of the English language test results accepted by Curtin English are:

Use the English Pathway Planner tool on the Curtin English website to find out which Curtin English program is right for you.

If you don't have a recent English language test result, you will need to complete the Password test. This is an online language test provided free of charge by Curtin English to determine your English starting level. Your score can be used for entry into all Curtin English courses.

Scholarships

A scholarship at Curtin can provide you with financial, academic and career support, giving you more opportunities to gain new skills and expand your horizons.

A scholarship is a sum of money or other financial assistance awarded to students to support their study. Scholarships are not loans – the money does not have to be repaid, provided you fulfil requirements such as academic performance.

Each scholarship has particular eligibility criteria, application procedures and closing dates. You can subscribe to receive email alerts when scholarships that match your criteria are open for applications.

International students can access a range of merit-based and need-based scholarships including the Australian Government's Endeavour Leadership Program, Destination Australia, and the Australia Awards Scholarships.

Fee information

Fees

The tuition fees (shown in Australian dollars) on pages 22–45 reflect the cost of the first semester and first year of study. These fees are based on the lowest combination of units, and a normal full-time workload of 100 credits per semester (200 credits per year).

Please note: some business courses run on trimesters (75 credits), therefore the cost to be paid per trimester may be slightly lower than the fee shown in this guide.

If you study more than 100 credits per semester, you will have a higher annual tuition fee.

The tuition fee is calculated and charged on a semester or trimester basis. All fees are subject to annual increases of no more than five per cent.

For more information on fees, visit curtin.edu/int-fees.

Incidental fees

Some courses require compulsory additional payment for retainable materials and course-related fees. These are known as essential incidental fees. Some individual units may have optional fees for course materials and other course-related items.

Refund agreement

The categories under which Student Administration and Fees will assess an application for refund are laid out in the University's International Student Refund Agreement. The agreement is supplied to you with your Letter of Offer and can also be accessed online at curtin.edu/fees-refunds, where you can also view the most up-to-date information as the policy is subject to change.
